R.A.F. FIGHTER MAKES SHORT WORK OF PROWLER

London, To-day.

THE B.B.C. OBSERVER with the R.A.F. in France describes how a British fighter shot down a German reconnaissance plane over a British aerodrome.

When the enemy plane appeared at a great height, the British fighter hopped off, but when still 3,000 feet below the enemy the latter turned for home.

Our fighter rapidly overhauled the German and from 300 yards opened heavy machine-gun fire.

The German plane went into a spin, hit the ground and exploded.

The pilot and two crew of the German machine were probably killed before the plane crashed as they made no attempt to regain control.—Reuter.

TOO EASY

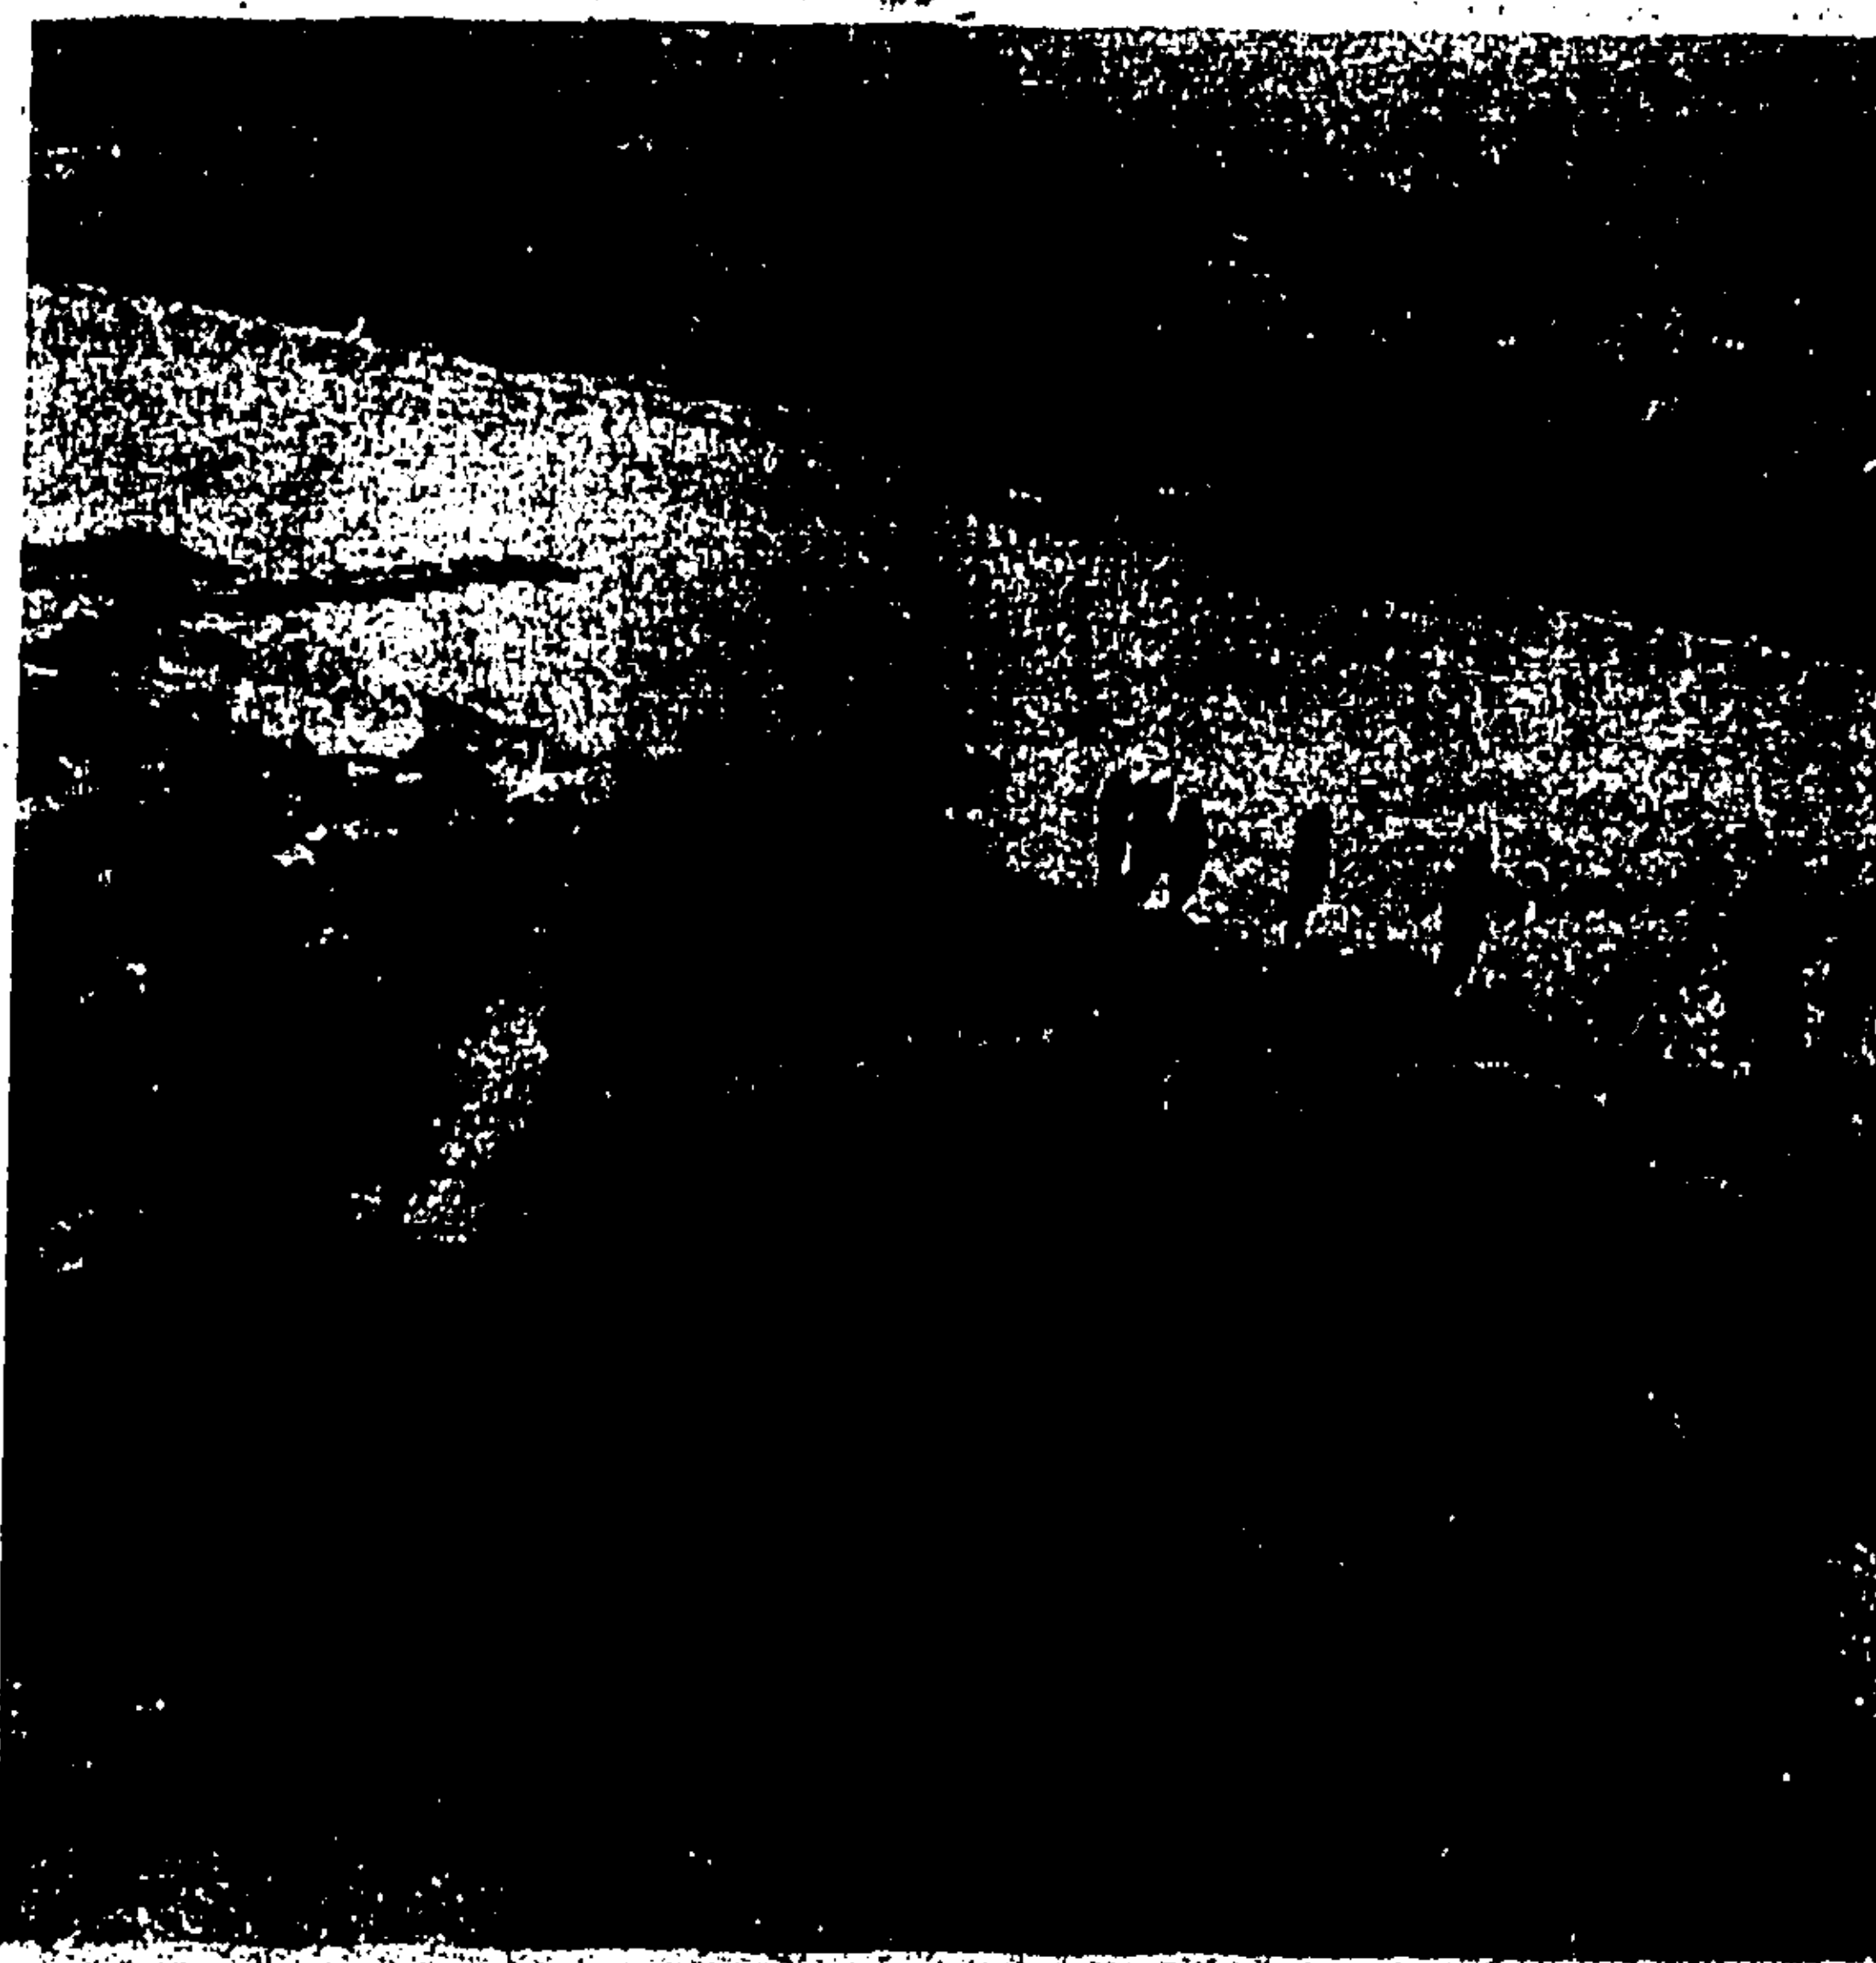

Reuter's correspondent says that the lone German reconnaissance plane appeared over a secret R.A.F. aerodrome behind the Maginot Line.

The German twin-engined plane made off for home at full speed, but the fighter, shooting from underneath, riddled the German with a nonstop blast of four hundred machine gun bullets.

The German crashed to earth and buried its nose in a crater nine feet deep.

The patrol tanks exploded with a tremendous report and a huge column of flame arose. None of the German crew survived.

The fighter pilot commented afterwards: "It was too easy; like potting a city pigeon."—Reuter.

LORD LONDONDERRY ON THE WAR

Belfast, To-day.

Lord Londonderry, a former Air Minister and before the war renowned for his efforts to achieve an Anglo-German understanding, declared in a speech here yesterday that the object of the war was to establish once for all time the right of free communities to exist.—Reuter.

NAZIS BUILD EAST WALL AGAINST SOVIET!

London, To-day.

Another description of Nazi brutality, this time in war and not in peace, is given by a Pole who is in London after an escape from Poland a week ago.

He says that one-fifth of Warsaw's 25,000 houses have been destroyed by the Germans or damaged beyond repair.

The Germans had destroyed factories and works and the employees were near starvation.

Almost any action was construed by the Germans as sabotage and punished by death.

Large numbers of young men, mainly Jews, has been carried away to build fortifications on German's new frontier with Russia.—Reuter.

H.K. TO MAKE POPPIES

SOME 20,000 POPPIES ARE BEING HURRIEDLY MADE IN THE COLONY FOR SALE ON ARMISTICE DAY (TO BE COMMEMORATED ON NOVEMBER 10).

The local organization has been forced to take this step because the consignment of poppies from England is not expected to arrive until November 17.

The locally made poppies will have the same metal disc with the words "FOR REMEMBRANCE" on the back as the poppies from England.

CATHOLICS CONDEMN GERMANY

Dublin, To-day.

The most outspoken comment in neutral Eire on the Nazi invasion of Poland is provided by a Roman Catholic Bishop, who has been noted in the past as a sturdy champion of Irish independence.

He said we have only to look at what has happened to see with what utter contempt the rules of Christ are treated by the materialistic Nazis.

The destruction of Poland by two great Powers is the most un-Christian and inhuman crime I have ever known.

The Bishop said in his atrocious speech that the Jews who have been persecuted for centuries and condemned to be trampled to death.

And that, it is hoped, will be sufficient for those who wish to make peace.

BRITISH POWER IN THE FIELD

Paris, To-day.

Neutral military experts comment with enthusiasm on the mobility and gun-power of the British forces in France.

They say the British army is capable of beating an equivalent German force under any conditions.

French officers who have visited the British sector say our lines are completely impregnable.—Reuter.

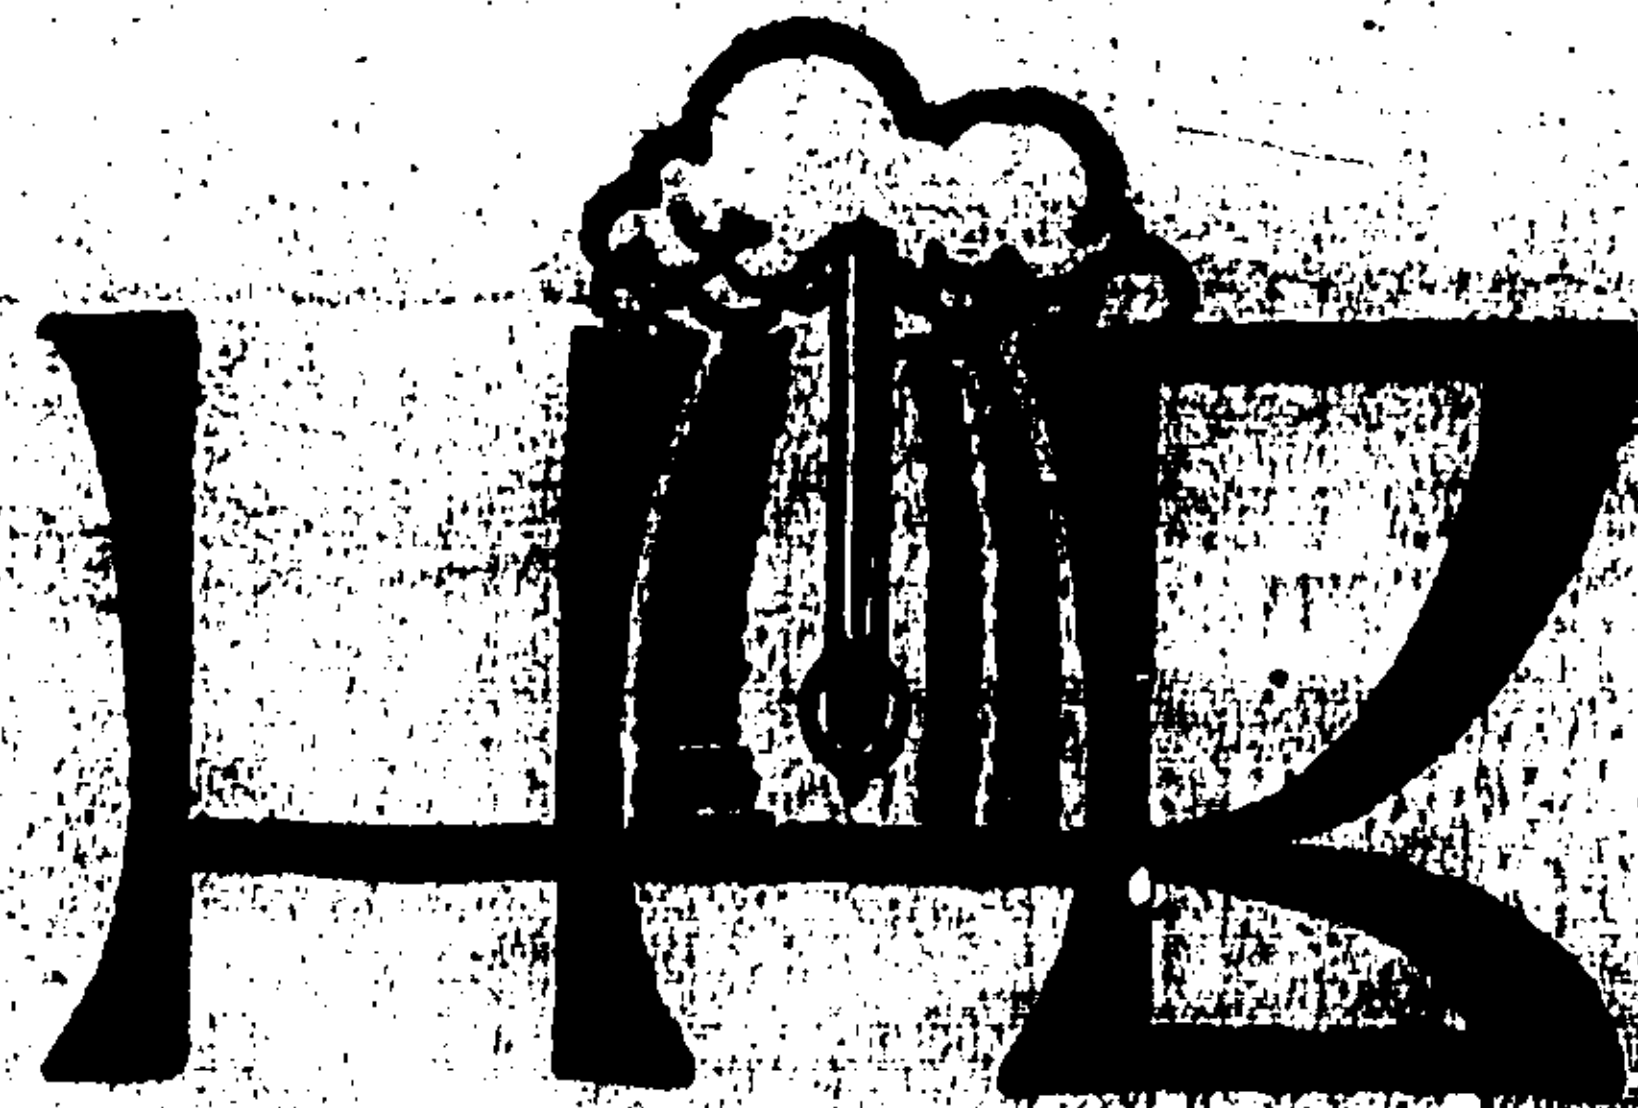

U.S. WARNING TO GERMANY

Washington, To-day.

The United States Charge d'Affaires in Berlin has informed the German Government that they will be held responsible for the safety of the American crew of the City of Flint.—Reuter.

CHINA DOLLAR'S NEW LEASE OF LIFE

Shanghai, To-day.

THE VARIOUS INFLUENCES at work in the recent steadiness of the Chinese dollar is the subject of a lengthy comment by "Finance and Commerce," the well-known Shanghai financial weekly, in a review of the local exchange market in the past week.

The journal points out in the first place that the steady appreciation of the Chinese dollar during the week was accompanied by a general feeling that the dollar has definitely escaped the quicksands and will stay, in the future, on higher and more solid ground.

"Finance and Commerce," discussing the situation, says that the fact that this impression prevails is itself of very material assistance to the market.

"What may be termed mob psychology has a considerable influence on exchange.

"A few weeks ago, when the dollar was standing at 3½d., the opinion was expressed that there was nothing to prevent its plunge into the abyss and its final disappearance.

REVIVED STRENGTH

"Since it has been showing signs of revived strength and vitality, public confidence has been to some extent restored When one turns we all turn."

"The state of mind implicit in that motto has affected the course of exchange more than any other single factor, but such questions as who or what started the turning movement and how long it will be before there is a right-about-face, is a difficult question to answer."

STERLING SALES

"Finance and Commerce" then declares that the selling of sterling from Hong Kong, accentuated by the recent exchange restrictions in the Colony, probably brought the first much-needed assistance to the China dollar.

"There has also been selling, in similar circumstances, from Singapore, while Indo-China and Manila contributed their quota in connection with trade requirements, and now the local Chinese, of whom large numbers possess varying small amounts of exchange, are keeping the ball rolling."

The selling in Shanghai is not of a speculative variety. They are purchasing dollars again because of the period of steadiness and the suggestion of an upward trend, which has con-

GREECE AND ITALY TO SIGN PACT

London, To-day.

It is learned that a non-aggression pact between Greece and Italy is expected to be signed shortly.

The pact will probably be a reaffirmation of a similar agreement between the two countries which was signed in 1928.

The new agreement may be regarded as a stabilising influence in that part of Europe, and as such is welcomed in London.

The British Government, it is understood, was kept informed of the progress of the talks.—Reuter.

REAFFIRMATION

When the details are published it is expected that they will prove to be largely a reaffirmation of a similar agreement between the two countries in 1928.

It is understood that the British Government have been informed of the negotiations that have taken place between Italy and Greece.—British Wireless.

BRITAIN'S COAL RATION

Washington, To-day.

THE AMERICAN STEAMER City of Flint, seized by a German crew and taken into the Russian port of Murmansk, called at the Norwegian port of Tromsø on Monday afternoon.

She did not enter the harbour proper but anchored in the distant roadsteads, and took on provisions. Only contact with the shore was when the German consul at Tromsø and the Norwegian port authorities went on board.

The City of Flint steamed out under the pilotage of a Norwegian warship, which took her clear of territorial waters.

In Washington, it is announced that the United States Minister to Norway, Mrs. Florence Harriman, reported that when the City of Flint called at Tromsø she was flying the German flag, and sailed three hours later.

The correspondent of a Stockholm newspaper publishes an interview with the German consul at Tromsø, who is reported to have said that when he boarded the City of Flint, the German prize crew and the American crew were still on board.

To get over the legal difficulty of taking on fuel and provisions at Tromsø, the Nazi crew carried out the process while the City of Flint was moving at slow speed in Tromsø Sound.

The refuelling was done while the ship was actually cruising.—Reuter.

ROOSEVELT HOPES

In reply to a question at his press conference, President Roosevelt said that he still hoped that the United States would get back the City of Flint.—Reuter.

DEVIOUS COURSE

London, To-day.

The Nazis are taking the American steamer City of Flint to Germany by a devious course through the fjords and waterways separating the Western Isles from the mainland of Norway.

It appears that they intend to navigate almost entirely in Norwegian waters.

A Bergen message says a Norwegian warship is closely following the City of Flint to see that there is no infringement of Norwegian rights.—Reuter.

TO END OF YEAR

"Among Chinese bankers and businessmen who are in the best position to read the financial barometer, the impression appears to be that the selling will continue for another month or two and that, as a consequence, a fairly steady market may be anticipated until about the end of the year. Beyond that period, no-one ventures a forecast."

Everything will depend on developments in the political field, the issues of war, peace and the state of trade.—Reuter.

HERR HITLER CALLS HIS CHIEFTAINS TO START INTENSE WORD WARFARE

Zurich, Oct. 25.

PROPAGANDA WARFARE on a scale as yet not attempted even by Dr. Josef Goebbels, the Reich's Propaganda Minister, was the main subject of discussion at Adolf Hitler's recent conference with his Nazi District leaders (Gauleiters), it was disclosed here to-day.

Contrary to earlier reports, Herr Hitler summoned his regional chieftains not to sound through them patriotic feeling in the various districts of the Reich, but to instruct them in the devious arts of propaganda.

The great offensive of words, printed and oral, is to be concentrated on Great Britain, it was declared. Britain would be termed "the hereditary enemy" of Germany, showing a great change from the printed declarations in "Mein Kampf," Fuehrer Hitler's "bible."

All trusted members of the Nazi party, Herr Hitler was declared to have told his henchmen, should be given the task of stirring up violent anti-British feeling throughout the Reich and to help the German Government work up world opinion against the British Government.

The whole German nation's approval must also be sought for measures necessary to blockade Great Britain's extensive sea communications system.

TECHNIQUE OF PROPAGANDA

Herr Hitler told his Gauleiters that he would hold each one of them personally responsible for the execution of his instructions. He then called on his propaganda chief, Dr. Goebbels, to give the men a few pointers on the work to be done.

The basic points of the impending word offensive, it was stated, would be allegations that Britain, who blames Germany for enslaving the Czechs and Poles, had gained her great power by oppressing people in her empire; that the British rulers were oppressing their own people by imposing on them a war meant to enrich only themselves (the rulers); and that it was really the Jews who were behind the British leaders.

Spice would be added to the propaganda with accusations, in various forms, of corruption among the British aristocracy.

PHOTOS TO BE USED

Dr. Goebbels, it was reported here, advised the Gauleiters to organise meetings throughout the country and even on the fighting front, and to spread their "teachings" with the aid of photographs that he would take to furnish them.

News services must also spread information with the same under-current of anti-British feeling and it must be constantly reiterated that Britain was mainly responsible for the war and that she always "treated international law and sacred treaties with contempt."

Dr. Goebbels, it was also said, was at present engaged in collecting documents in the Netherlands and Switzerland to wage a campaign against the French Finance Minister, Paul Reynaud.

M. Reynaud, Dr. Goebbels would seek to "prove," had fraudulent speculation deals with the banker Mannheimier, who recently died in Paris. He would thus try to turn on M. Reynaud the campaign that he recently had loosed on himself by the American newspaper correspondent, Mr. H. R. Knickerbocker.

IN ITALY TOO

Meanwhile, a section of the German propaganda organism was reported to have been opened in Italy in order to bolster the Reich's anti-British efforts with some further attacks in Italy.

Observers associated these reports with despatches announcing that German troops of occupation in Slovakia had been reinforced during the past few days.

On the one hand, it was said, German wished to strengthen anti-British propaganda warfare and, on the other hand, wished to give "substance" to "rumours" that she never thought to bring the Red Army into the heart of Europe.

Thus, it would be declared that German troops were sent to Slovakia to protect Hungarian frontiers against Communist action.—Havas.

SOVIET MISSION FOR BERLIN

Moscow, Oct. 25.

Accompanied by 45 Soviet commercial experts, Navy Construction Commissar Ivar Tsvossian left for Berlin yesterday to negotiate specific commercial exchanges with the Reich.

His departure was reported to have been scheduled a few days ago. It was forecast at the same time that the head of the German trade delegation here, Dr. Ritter, returned to Berlin.—Havas.

ALBANIA 'DIPLOMACY'

London, To-day.

The Prime Minister announced in the House of Commons yesterday that the Government proposes to appoint Mr. L. B. Graffey-Smith as British Consul-General at Durazzo, Albania, in place of Sir Andrew Ryan, formerly Minister and Consul-General.

The usual application for the appointment to be approved would be made to the Italian Government.—Reuter.

APPLICATION TO ITALY FOR EXEQUATUR

The Prime Minister said that in order that Mr. Graffey-Smith might be able to exercise his functions, it would be necessary to apply in usual way to the Italian Government for an Exequatur.

A similar announcement was made in Rome.

It has caused no surprise in London where, for some time past, the difficulties arising from the absence of a Consul-General in Albania have become increasingly acute.—British Wireless.

TERRIBLE FACTS WHICH SPEAK FOR THEMSELVES: COMMENT ON WHITE PAPER

London, To-day.

THE BRITISH PRESS yesterday took up unanimously and vigorously, but in the main with dignified restraint, the revelations contained in the Foreign Office White Paper on the Nazi treatment of minorities in Germany.

A course which is generally adopted is to let the terrible facts speak for themselves, and to express the hope, as does the "Manchester Guardian," that however the war ends Germany may, in the name of humanity, rid itself of a government which inflicts such brutal indignities on its own people.

The "News Chronicle" says that although atrocity stories are incidental to all wars, a feature of the White Paper is that it describes events which have not happened in war but in peace.

"That very fact," the newspaper declares, "clears the British Government of any charge that it is replying in kind to the German Propaganda Ministry."

The barbarities of Dachau and Buchenwald have long been known to the outside world, and there is not much new in the White Paper (as "The Times" points out), but, says this journal, "the horrors are told in such detail and with so much corroboration between victims who had no connection with each other that they bear the authentic stamp of truth."

HUMAN DIGNITY

The "Daily Telegraph" says the outside world has only to read the report to realise that it is not merely Democracy or political liberty which is at stake in the present struggle but the very dignity of the human race. The first neutral comment comes from the Netherlands, which is stated to have been profoundly shocked by the revelations.

HITLER'S HATE

Hitherto the Netherlands newspapers have been chary of publishing such reports, but yesterday the British White Paper was widely commented on.

The "Het Volk," of Amsterdam, devotes two full columns to the details. It is noted with special interest that Hitler's personal hatred of Pastor Niemöller has now been made clear by Sir Neville Henderson. — Reuter.

SIX YEARS AFTER

London, To-day.

The following points in "The Times" leader are also worth emphasis:—

The early terrors of the Nazi revolution are well-known but the continuance of the same brutality five and six years afterwards was not generally realised.

The documents relate to this period, in which the majority of political opponents of the regime are either dead, expelled or silent, hence the sufferings described are mostly those of Jews.

The statements recorded will doubtless be officially denied but by men who make no distinction between truth and untruth. — Reuter.

SHOCKING HYPOCRISY

London, To-day.

The American newspapers yesterday published prominently summaries of the British White Paper giving authentic detail of the Nazi terror in Germany.

In Paris, the "Paris Midi" says the White Paper unmasks with vigour the shocking hypocrisy of the Nazi regime. — Reuter.

RIGOROUS NAZI ACTION IN PRAGUE

REPORTS FROM PRAGUE STATE THAT THE NAZIS ARE PUNISHING SEVERELY ALL CZECHS ARRESTED ON THE INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATIONS.

No general punitive measures, however, are to be taken.

It is now learned that one was killed in the disturbances and two Germans and four Czechs seriously injured. — Reuter.

GERMANY KEEPS UP THE POISON GAS CANARD

London, To-day.

DESPITE CATEGORICAL British official denials, the German Government (says the War Office) continues to circulate in neutral countries repetitions and elaborations of the baseless charge that Great Britain supplied poison gas to Poland.

The War Office recalls that the Polish Government on October 20 categorically denied the allegation and a Swiss doctor who examined German soldiers, alleged to be the victims of gas in Poland, declared on October 23 that he "found no evidence indicating in what circumstances the poisoning occurred."

Dealing with the so-called "circumstantial evidence" which the German Government says proves their charge, the War Office says that this consists of assertions that the poison gas alleged to have been found in Poland, came from a dump near Gdynia and that this dump was filled from British ships.

The War Office reply states that the Board of Trade, through a system of export licences for war materials, maintain the strictest control and complete records of all exports of munitions.

A detailed examination of its records and every possible source of supply, shows that nothing of the kind was ever supplied to Poland. — Reuter.

ELEVEN SURVIVORS OF BLAST

IT IS NOW LEARNED THAT ELEVEN SURVIVORS HAVE BEEN TRACED BY THE WATER POLICE FOLLOWING THE BLOWING UP OF THE STEAM LAUNCH "KWONG HONG" AND TWO JUNKS IN THE MINE FIELD OFF CHU LEI KOK ISLAND, NORTH OF LANTAU.

At least 40 Chinese are believed to have been killed by the explosion or drowned after the boats were smashed.

Seven of the survivors are in hospital. The reason why the coxswain of the launch changed course, running right into the minefield after being warned by Police Launch No. 3 off Cheung Sha Wan, still remains a mystery.

It is understood that there will be an inquiry at the Harbour Office.

FIRST TEST ON NEUTRALITY BILL IN HOUSE

Washington, To-day.

President Roosevelt won the first test of strength in the House of Representatives yesterday over the Neutrality Bill when the House decided that the Bill should be sent forthwith to a joint Senate and House committee to compose the differences in measures before the two bodies. — Reuter.

FINLAND PLANS TO SUBMIT OFFER TO SOVIET

Stockholm, To-day.

WHEN THE FINNISH delegation headed by M. Paasikivi left for Moscow last night they took for submission to Stalin detailed counter-proposals.

According to the Helsinki correspondent of the "Dag Bladet," the new proposals represent the unanimous view of the Finnish Cabinet and Diet, including opposition parties.

While the details of the proposals to go, though further discussion of the details is not excluded. The Finns believe that the new proposals cannot fail to satisfy the Russians. — Reuter.

GESTAPO IN ARMS FACTORIES

Paris, To-day.

German workers in war factories are being watched by special sections of the Gestapo who are seeking the reason for the considerable falling-off in output in recent weeks, according to "Paris Soir" reports.

The reports add that employers complain of the difficulty of financing orders since the Reichsbank will no longer accept tax bonds and workers dislike the mass transplantations which are breaking morale. — Reuter.

TWO SHOT AT IN SHANGHAI

CHUNGKING, TO-DAY.

THE INTERNATIONAL SETTLEMENT POLICE ARE INVESTIGATING A SHOOTING INCIDENT INVOLVING TWO PUPPET OFFICIALS, WHICH OCCURRED YESTERDAY, A SHANGHAI DESPATCH REPORTS.

The victims, King Wen-chang and Feng Kung-chan, were walking near the intersection of Avenue Road and Tatung Road when four men in a motor car passing by fired six shots at them.

King was wounded in his abdomen and arms died on the spot. Feng was wounded in the chest.

Both were connected with the Salt Administration of the puppet regime of Chekiang.

A suspect has been arrested. — Central News.

The Duke of Windsor visited the French front lines yesterday. He watched artillery in action and talked to troops returning from a patrol in No Man's Land. — Reuter.

M. Molotov Adopts Nazi Thesis In Speech

ATTEMPTS TO DISCREDIT WAR AIMS OF THE ALLIES: VEILED THREAT TO FINLAND

Moscow, To-day.
THE SOVIET FOREIGN Commissar, M. Molotov, addressing the Supreme Soviet Council, said that the so-called traditional policy of unprincipled manoeuvring between Germany and the Soviet, and the playing off of one against the other, had proved unsound and suffered complete bankruptcy.

There was one swift blow to Poland, first by the German Army, and then the Red Army, and nothing was left of the ugly offspring of the Versailles Treaty which had existed by oppressing non-Polish nationalities.

M. Molotov declared: "To-day, far from the European great powers concerned, Germany is in the position of a State which is striving for the early termination of the war and for peace, while Britain and France which but yesterday were declaiming against aggression are in favour of continuing the war and are opposed to the conclusion of peace."

M. Molotov declared that everybody realised that there could be no question of restoring the old Poland and it is therefore absurd to continue the present war under the flag of the restoration of the former Polish state.

"Britain and France do not want the war stopped and peace restored but are seeking new excuses for continuing the war with Germany."

IDEOLOGICAL WAR

"The British, and with them the French supporters of war, have declared something in the nature of an 'ideological war' on Germany, reminiscent of the wars of olden times."

It is not only senseless but criminal to wage such a war for the "destruction of Hitlerism" camouflaged as a fight for "democracy." "The motives of Britain and France do not lie in any ideology but in their profound material interests as mighty colonial powers." It is fear of Germany's claims to these colonial possessions that is at the bottom of the present war—a fear that has become substantially stronger lately as the result of the collapse of the Versailles Treaty.

WAR FOR SUPREMACY

"It is fear of losing world supremacy that dictates to the ruling circles of Britain and France a policy of fomenting war with Germany."

"Thus the imperialistic character of this war is obvious to anyone who wants to face realities and does not close his eyes to facts."

"One can see from all this who is interested in this war for world supremacy; certainly not the working class. This war promises nothing to the working class but bloody sacrifice and hardships."

"The Soviet-German non-aggression pact has bound us to maintain neutrality in case of Germany participating in a war."

POLITICAL SUPPORT

"We have persistently pursued this course which is in no wise contradicted by the entry of our troops into the territory of the former Poland."

Speaking of the improvement of Soviet-German relations M. Molotov said: Development has proceeded along the line of strengthening our friendly relations, extending our practical co-operation and rendering Germany political support in her efforts for peace."

STRONG GERMANY

M. Molotov added:—"We always held that a strong Germany was an indispensable condition for durable peace in Europe. It is ridiculous to think that Germany could be simply put out of commission and struck off the books."

"The Powers which cherish this foolish and dangerous dream, ignore the deplorable experience of Versailles and do not realise Germany's increased might, fail to see that any attempt at a repetition of Versailles in the present state of international affairs—which radically differs from that of 1914—may end in disaster for them."

PRESSURE ON FINLAND

M. Molotov said that the Soviet was demanding the Aaland and other islands from Finland.

The Soviet wanted a mutual assistance pact along the lines of those negotiated with the other Baltic states, but Finland refused.

The Soviet asked Finland to "move back" some kilometres from the frontier in the Leningrad area and take part of Karelia in exchange.

They also sought to rent some islands to create naval bases in the Gulf of Finland. Finland was prepared to concede only part of what Russia wanted, and the Soviet modified the proposals.

VEILED THREAT

But if Finland continued to fail to meet Soviet requirements it would be harmful to the cause of peace.—Reuter.

U.S. CRITICISED

M. Molotov criticised the intervention of President Roosevelt in the Soviet-Finnish negotiations as "hardly in accordance with United States neutrality." It is not as if things were better in the United States.

The Philippines had not received their independence, whereas Russia gave Finland its independence and sovereignty in 1917.

In reply to President Roosevelt, M. Kalinin, the Soviet President, had declared that the Soviet proposals did not run counter to the independence of Finland.—Reuter.

CONTROL OF FOOD IN BRITAIN

London, To-day.
Answering questions in the House of Commons yesterday on the control of food, the Prime Minister, Mr. Neville Chamberlain, said the paramount objective was to win the war, but grievances and hardships would be removed where possible.—Reuter.

RESHUFFLE IN ITALIAN CABINET

London, To-day.

There is no indication in despatches from Rome of the reason for the new Italian army, government and Fascist party reshuffle.

It is pointed out that it will be some time before its effect will become apparent.

In London, the development meets with no particular surprise.

It is noted, however, that under Signor Alfieri, who is relieved of his post as Minister of Popular Culture, the Italian press was inevitably critical of Britain.—Reuter.

GERMAN ATTITUDE

London, To-day.

The German radio, announcing the Italian Cabinet changes, made no comment and merely quoted "Italian quarters" as stating that the changes would not affect the Duce's traditional policy.—Reuter.

FRENCH COMMENT

Paris, To-day.

Official circles show a marked disinclination to infer that Italian Cabinet changes will have any marked effect on Italian foreign policy.

They state that Italy has shown no indication of wanting to depart from the non-intervention attitude adopted at the beginning of the war.—Reuter.

SOVIET'S THREE AIMS

Moscow, To-day.

M. Molotov said that the Soviet's aims were a free hand in international affairs, the continuation of the policy of neutrality, and the cessation of the war.

He said that Soviet-Japanese trade talks were imminent but it was not clear to what extent and how soon Japan wanted a vital improvement in Soviet-Japanese relations.—Reuter.

MOBILISING AUSTRALIAN INDUSTRY

CANBERRA, TO-DAY.

ANOTHER STEP WAS TAKEN YESTERDAY IN THE MOBILISING OF AUSTRALIA'S INDUSTRY FOR WAR.

Manufacturers are now obliged to deliver immediately goods urgently required for national defence.

Prices are fixed under an agreement between the Government and manufacturers.—Reuter.

MIRROR OF WORLD OPINION

NO HATE

The feeling now expressed against Hitlerism is not a new thing that has emerged with the war. It has been steadily mounting for years, increasing with each assault upon a weak country and with each fresh persecution of Jews or Christians. About that, indeed, there is burning indignation; there is amazement that this should be possible in the twentieth century. But according to those who have been studying British opinion, the people find little satisfaction in the prospect of seeking redress through victory and do not think in terms of humiliating the German people.

A great growth in international sentiment in Britain since the World War is noted. It is no longer generally believed that the prosperity of Germany is antagonistic to the prosperity of the British Empire, or that Britain will become richer if Germany becomes poorer. The defects in the Treaty of Versailles are as willingly admitted in Britain as anywhere, and those who already think in terms of a future peace say only that Hitlerism, with its aggression and persecution, must go.

The lessons of bitter experience have not been forgotten. The spirit which inspired the conception of the League of Nations is not dead. There are millions who believe that though armaments must be used to the utmost, the war will not be won by armaments alone, but that victory will fall to the side which proves that it is fighting for justice, peace, and in the last resort, generosity.—"Christian Science Monitor."

CHINA'S COMMUNISTS

"The Chinese Communists are making things difficult for their leaders at Chungking, declaring that they had joined the Red Party on the declared resolution of regarding Japan a common enemy of the Kuomintang and Communists. But now that Soviet Russia has declared peace with Japan at Nomonhan, how can their presence be accounted as Communists fighting Japan? they ask.

"The Communist leaders are in deep water, unable to give satisfactory answer to this question, while internal dissension is daily growing, threatening a final disintegration. So much so that one of these leaders has hurriedly gone to Moscow to obtain instructions what is best to be done.

"It is all their business and we don't care what becomes of them. The only thing that interests us is the precarious and miserable status of those who depend soul and body upon the whims of others. Perchance, Chiang Kai-shek may have begun feeling the same. But both the Kuomintang and the Chinese Communist Party will soon be relieved of their worries; they are both destined to disappear before Japan's gunshot."—"Japan Times Weekly."

AN ANSWER

"We Communists openly declare our complete and lasting adherence to the continuance of the war of resistance. We support Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, the National Government and the national programme for the war. We firmly oppose the so-called peace group. We are willing to join hands with all patriotic parties and organisations — with all the patriotic citizens of our country to strengthen the National Anti-Japanese United Front and the co-operation between the Kuomintang and the Communist Party and to execute the Three Peoples Principles (San Min Chu I). And we have but one objective—to drive the enemy back to the borders of Korea and recover all of our lost territories.

"We have nothing but condemnation for either the Wang Ching-wei's who are openly traitors or their brothers who secretly exacerbate friction between the Communist Party and the Kuomintang in order to split our unity and reduce our country to civil war. It is undeniable that their splitting intrigues are preparation for capitulation and that their policy, at the cost of the whole nation, is the expression of nothing but the selfish interests of a few. We have faith in the judgment of our people and we know every intrigue will be exposed for what it is."—Mao Tze-tung, Leader of the Chinese Communist Party, in "China Today."

WHO IS TO BLAME?

The Japanese cannot legitimately complain about foreign misunderstanding of the so-called new order in East Asia so long as their behaviour is driving the most innocuously employed of all foreigners—the missionaries—but of their chosen fields of endeavour. It is a fact which reflects a sad light upon Japanese occupied areas in China that mission work is being rendered increasingly impossible where they rule, while in the parts of the country still under national government control there is little or no interference with foreign missions and no hindrances are put in the way of their expansion. It is understandable that, in the light of a mistake notion of economics, the Japanese should wish to exclude foreign merchants from the interior of this country — understandable but not the less intolerable for all that. But to attack missions for the apparent reason that they are run chiefly by people of a different race and colouring from the world-be

NEUTRALITY

Domestic American legislation is interfering with the international law aspects of neutrality to the extent of depriving the sea powers of a quality of aircraft reinforcement which is no trifling detail, but might well be the turning point in the conflict. With the embargo limited, these powers might obtain by the cash and carry method a total running into thousands of planes a year.

conquerors of China is altogether a different proposition. Be they British, Americans, or Scandinavians, missionaries in this country are here because they have heard a call to spread enlightenment among the Chinese masses. They take nothing out of the country, but bring much, both economically and culturally, into it. To imagine that they are a power for evil against Japan is to revert to the mentality of the Boxer years of 1900, when horrific legends of blood-thirsty "foreign devils" were spread abroad. It would be a wholesome corrective of some of the misunderstandings of the Japanese objectives which, as Mr. Joseph Clark Grew's speech warned Tokyo, exist abroad, if the Japanese authorities in China were to put a quick end to the anti-mission agitation which has apparently been officially encouraged in many areas. And if, as the Japanese seems to fear, the Japanese forces have as a consequence to put up with some hostile criticism, they may rest assured that hostility among foreigners in the interior will cease the moment that persecutions and unwarranted attacks are discouraged.—"N.C.D.N."

GERMANS SHELL VILLAGES BEHIND THE LINES

Paris, To-day.

AFTER A QUIET NIGHT activity increased on the western front yesterday, and last night's French communique reported that there was marked activity between the Moselle and the Saar.

There were raids, ambushes and patrols.

Two enemy planes were brought down out of control on the Saar front behind the German lines.

The better visibility has led to greater artillery activity.

The Germans are using long-distance guns and yesterday shelled a French village six miles behind the lines near the Saar. The French sent out seven long-distance reconnaissance patrols and the German one.

All French planes returned safely, and one German machine was brought down.—Reuter.

THREE GERMAN PLANES SHOT DOWN

Paris, To-day.

The latest official communique says: "In the course of many flights on Monday, a 2-engined German reconnaissance machine was brought down in our lines."

"Two enemy observation planes fell out of control in the German lines on the Saar front."—Reuter.

AIR ACTIVITY OVER BRITISH LINES

Paris, To-day.

Much of the renewed aerial activity on the western front took place over the British lines.

A German plane was brought down somewhere behind the British sector by our anti-aircraft guns.

Thousands of British troops had their first experience of an air raid warning, which was sounded at noon and lasted 45 minutes.

PLANE MISSING

One of the R.A.F. planes which carried out a daylight photographing expedition over enemy aerodromes in northern Germany has not yet reported back at its base in France.

At least one German reconnaissance plane was brought down by the French in Monday's air engagements.

French planes which, like the British, photographed German aerodromes, all returned safely.—Reuter.

TYPICAL GERMAN COMMUNIQUE

Berlin, To-day.

German troops crossed the frontier into France and reconnoitred positions in front of the Maginot Line, according to the German News Agency which adds that they have found an abandoned trench system, evacuated machine gun nests and a deserted village!

They retired without encountering enemy fire, having seized quantities of abandoned war materials!—Reuter.

LUXEMBOURG REPORT

Luxembourg, To-day.

Great activity was noted yesterday morning and the previous day along the Luxembourg frontier.

Some planes passed over Luxembourg territory.—Reuter.

AUSTRALIAN WHEAT SALE

Canberra, To-day.

The Australian Government has acquired 17,000,000 bushels of Australian wheat, of which 10,000,000 bushels has been sold to the British Government.

Price was about 2/8d per bushel, which is 1/4 higher than the pre-war average.—Reuter.

INDIAN AIR FORCE RESERVE

New Delhi, To-day.

Recruiting has started for the new Indian Air Force Volunteer Reserve.

It consists, in the initial stages, of five flights, primarily for coast defence flights, which will be stationed in Karachi, Bombay, Madras, Calcutta and Delhi.

The machines will be manned mostly by Indians enlisted for the duration of the war, with the option of subsequent peace time service, together with a nucleus of regular service personnel.—Reuter.

NAZI AIR RAIDERS DRIVEN OFF

LONDON, TO-DAY.

AN ENEMY AEROPLANE WAS SEEN BY AN R.A.F. PLANE OFF THE EAST COAST YESTERDAY MORNING.

It is announced by the Admiralty and Air Ministry that after a short engagement at close range, the enemy aircraft broke off the combat and flew away in an easterly direction.

Shortly afterwards, a German sea-plane of the same type attempted to attack a British convoy some miles out at sea.

It was driven off by British aircraft. Two bombs were dropped, but they did no damage.—Reuter.

NAVAL STATEMENT

The following statement by the survivors of the mine explosion on Monday night, when a steam launch and two junks were blown up, was released by the local Naval Authorities this morning:

"The steam launch 'Kwong Hong, with two junks in tow, was on passage from Canton to Hong Kong. At about 9 p.m., she was intercepted by a Police launch in Urmston Road and ordered to proceed south of Chu Lu Kok."

The steam launch steered a southerly course for about two hours, when she came across a Red Flag Buoy. Thinking she was clear of the danger area, she turned towards Kap Sing Mun to pass north of Chu Lu Kok.

"At about 1 p.m. she struck a mine and the launch and both junks were wrecked. About 40 lives were lost, but some 13 survivors clung to wreckage and drifted on shore at Lantau next morning."

THREAT TO NEUTRALS DENIED

Amsterdam, To-day.

Well-informed circles in Berlin continue to deny rumours that Germany intends to violate neutral territory, according to the Berlin correspondent of the Amsterdam newspaper "Handelsblad."

These circles declare that the presence of German troops near neutral frontiers can be explained by the fact that as the German-French frontier is relatively short German troops had to be spread out farwise.

It is also claimed in Berlin that the inaction of the Allies on the Western Front, after they themselves had declared war on Germany, leaves the initiative in German hands.—Reuter.

EMPIRE AIR CONFERENCE IN OTTAWA

OTTAWA, TO-DAY.

THE AUSTRALIAN REPRESENTATIVE AT THE DISCUSSIONS ON THE EMPIRE AIR TRAINING SCHEME, WHO ARRIVED HERE YESTERDAY, IS MR. V. FAIRBAIRN, CONTROLLER OF AVIATION.

New Zealand's representative, Group-Captain Saunders, also arrived here yesterday.

The British representatives are already in Ottawa, and the discussions are expected to start in a few days.—Reuter.

GOUGH SORRY FOR VON BRAUCHITSCH

London, To-day.

General Sir Hubert Gough, who commanded the Fifth Army in France from 1916 to 1918, forecasts in an article a great deterioration in Germany before the Spring.

Germany's prospects of success on the western front, he says, are very small.

"The problem for Germany is truly a terrible one," he concludes, "and I am indeed sorry for the chief of the German army at this moment."—Reuter.

CHANGE OF POLICY IN N. CHINA?

Peiping, To-day.

Informed Chinese political circles declare that the Japanese authorities have issued orders for the cessation of the anti-British movement in this area.

While it remains for events to prove this, well-informed circles emphatically declare that the Chinese Police are under orders to remove anti-British banners fixed across streets, anti-British slogans pasted on walls and to destroy anti-British posters and pamphlets—all within the next few days.

They are also to remove pickets from British premises.

The same circles declare that this development represents the changed Japanese policy towards the development of friendly relations with the Democracies and a corresponding swing from the totalitarian ranks.—Reuter.

INEXPENSIVE SATISFYING

ANNUAL PRIZE-DAY OF BELILIOS PUBLIC SCHOOL

MRS. R. A. C. NORTH THIS morning distributed the prizes at the annual prize-day of the Belilios Public School.

In her report, the Principal, Miss Nora Bascombe, stated:

The school opened with 654 pupils, the average attendance was 608.

Mrs. Stark, Principal for 5 years retired in March. Her cheery, invigorating presence and her generosity are very much missed.

Miss Brown took charge till the end of term, introducing various changes to aid the physical well-being of the pupils. A door has been made from the Laboratory store-room to a small piece of roof, now a garden. I hope this is only the beginning and that arrangements may be made to gain access to the roof space over the New Building. This is a matter of greater importance now that we have, owing to the new Training College, lost our playing ground. Our small yard is used to the utmost but games here cannot be unattended by noise and this inside, combined with the noisy trades e.g. making of camphor wood boxes and the sawing of marble, hawkers and quarrels which involve large crowds, processions etc. is a heavy strain on the attention of the pupils and the voices of the Staff.

Three of our girls passed the Hong Kong Matriculation examination, one gaining a Distinction, and 17 passed the School Certificate Examination. This grants no Distinctions.

We are very proud that for the second year one of our girls, Au Yan Chiu gained the Government Scholarship tenable at the Hong Kong University. Three of our girls are at the University. Several are training as nurses at the Queen Mary Hospital and four as teachers at the Training College.

While our building is, in parts, spacious and some classrooms are airy, the school—the only Government School for girls—has definitely outgrown its accommodation, and I hope it will soon be possible for it to be moved to a more salubrious, quieter neighbourhood, without the ever present bag and wrist snatching that we get in these slums.

INDUSTRY'S CONTRIBUTION TO WAR EFFORT

London, To-day.

MR. ERNEST BROWN, Minister of Labour, in a broadcast talk last night on the contribution of industry to the war effort, said:

As a great industrial country, we had already great resources of skill and plant, and to these great additions had been made and were being made, so that there will be no doubt that whatever the effort required, this country will be able to meet all the demands which will be made upon it.

"This is a formidable task, but we have entered upon it with an asset which our opponent does not possess, the asset of being a free people with free institutions.

"It is a remarkable fact that we were able to enter upon the war without imposing any new form of legislative control upon the regulation of wages and working conditions.

During the past twenty years we have been steadily setting up in each industry, joint machinery through which the representatives of employers and the work-people manage the affairs of their industries and settle their own conditions.

ADVISORY COUNCIL

"As I speak, this joint machinery is operating to adapt those conditions to war circumstances. In the light for freedom we have the inestimable gain of fighting with the aid of a free organisation of employers and work-people carrying on their work in the way they have themselves decided.

"The powerful Trade Union movement in Great Britain is convinced that the war is against forces that threaten those institutions and that endanger the liberty of work-people throughout the world.

"They believe that its object is to create circumstances in which their fellows in Germany will be able to regain freedom to live their own lives and have again their own free organisations.

"To-morrow afternoon there will take place the first meeting of the National Joint Advisory Council to which the T.U.C. General Council and the British Employers' Confederation have appointed representatives.

ALL INDUSTRIES

"These representatives will be in touch with all industries and when I say that already represented, on one side or the other, are agriculture, cotton, wool, spinning, engineering and retail distribution, it will be seen how great is the knowledge which is placed at the disposal of the Government.

"The purpose of the Council is to advise the Government on questions in which employers and workers have a common interest."

The Minister of Labour stated that skilled Trade Unions had voluntarily agreed to allow less skilled workers to work by their side on work so far reserved for skilled men and that a register of such cases would be kept so that when peace conditions return, the position of the skilled men will not be prejudiced."

The Minister continued with a survey of the way the various industries had met and were meeting the particular difficulties occasioned by war.

KEY OCCUPATIONS

"A list of key occupations has been compiled in order that men in such occupations shall not be taken from industry unless required in the forces for the work in which they are skilled. This will assure, as far as possible, that industry is kept fully manned to produce munitions and maintain the life of the nation and also that when the war is over industry generally will have a basis for reconstruction and expansion."

Mr. Brown concluded with a special word of praise for the British Merchant seamen and fishermen in their most vital and hazardous work. — British Wireless.

OFFICERS PROMOTED FROM RANKS

LONDON, TO-DAY.

THE SECRETARY FOR WAR, MR. LESLIE HORE-BELISHA, ANNOUNCED IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS YESTERDAY THAT THERE WAS NO INTENTION TO SEND ANY MEN ON SERVICE OVERSEAS UNTIL THEY HAD HAD SUFFICIENT TRAINING TO CARRY OUT THE DUTIES ALLOTTED TO THEM.

These varied, he said. For example, in the case of motor-drivers, eight weeks might be considered an adequate training period.

Most of the men, Mr. Hore-Belisha stated, wanted to get to France as quickly as possible.

Mr. Hore-Belisha added that the number of men picked from the ranks to receive training as officers numbered about 7,000.

Two thousand had been promoted from the ranks since the Military Training Act was passed.—Reuter.

Mr. C. J. Church, managing director of the Advertising and Publicity Bureau Ltd., arrived from Singapore yesterday on a visit to the local office. His stay here is likely to be for an indefinite period.

INCOME TAX STRAW VOTE

The easiest and most amusing pastime in the world is to play around with suggestions for new forms of taxation or for increasing the levels of existing taxes, with a neat and natural tendency to choose those least likely to affect the selector's own pocket.

Government has proposed Income Tax in Hong Kong as a special war contribution, in the belief that its incidence will be more equitable than any alternative tax or taxes.

A vote which provides a cross-section of public opinion on the straight issue is likely to prove more valuable than vague wanderings round the fiscal field, and the following questionnaire is offered to our readers:

INCOME TAX STRAW VOTE

Do you approve of Income Tax in principle? . . . YES . . . NO

Do you approve the Government's tentative proposals? . . . YES . . . NO

Would you be affected by them? . . . YES . . . NO

If you feel the burden to be too heavy, would your objection be met (a) by an extension of the allowances . . . YES . . . NO

(b) by extension of the initial five per cent. basis to cover, say, the first $6,000 of taxable income, against the first $3,000 as now now proposed? . . . YES . . . NO

(c) or both? . . . YES . . . NO. Strike out the answer inapplicable.

The questions are posed on the basis that the purpose of Government's desire to raise additional revenue is endorsed.

Additional comment by readers will, of course, be welcomed.

NAZIS CLOSE DOWN ON FOREIGN JOURNALISTS

London, To-day.

Various Nazi broadcasts have been alleging a strict censorship of neutral journalists in England and contrasting this with the claimed liberal treatment of foreign correspondents in Germany.

Actually, there has been a remarkable change in the Nazi treatment of foreign journalists.

A message from its Brussels correspondent appearing in "The Times" says that a strict censorship has been clamped down on neutral journalists in Berlin.

Only scanty news is allowed to reach correspondents in the Nazi capital, and they are finding it difficult to perform their duties.

They learn nothing from official sources, and the twice daily press conferences at the Wilhelmstrasse have been discontinued.

Neutral journalists, says "The Times," are wondering what the real cause is of this change of policy. — Reuter.

QUEEN'S BROADCAST

London, To-day.

The Queen will broadcast to the women of the Empire on the evening of Remembrance Day — November 11.

Her Majesty will start speaking at 8 p.m. (G.M.T.) (4 a.m. the next day in Hong Kong) and the broadcast is expected to last five minutes.

Recordings of the address will be broadcast at 5.45 a.m., 8.30 a.m., noon, 5 p.m., 7.30 p.m. and midnight on November 12 (all Hong Kong Time). — Reuter.

CHRISTMAS LEAVE

London, To-day.

It is officially stated that Christmas leave will be granted to British troops in France, sometime early in December.

Provisional dates have been arranged but they will depend on the situation at the time.

The first men to come back will be those who were not able to obtain leave before they embarked for France. — Reuter.

CLEANING UP A NUISANCE

A fine of $20 or six weeks' hard labour was this morning imposed on Wong Kit, 25, by Mr. E. Himsforth for behaving in a disorderly manner.

Inspector A. S. Johnson, who prosecuted, said defendant snatched two trunks from a European, who was sitting in a taxi near the Star Ferry yesterday.

Wong was not asked to carry the trunks.

CHUNGKING SAVINGS LOAN OFFER

Chungking, To-day.
The Ministry of Finance in a proclamation announces the institution of fixed savings in foreign currencies as a further step to encourage savings and provide capital for national reconstruction.

British, American, French and other foreign currencies approved by the Ministry may be deposited in either of the four government banks, the Central Bank, the Bank of China, the Bank of Communications and the Farmers' Bank.

Repayment of principal and payment of interest will be in the currency deposited. Rates of interest are fixed at 4%, 5%, 6% and 7% for deposits of two, three, four and five years respectively.

National currency may also be converted into foreign currency at the exchange rate announced, and deposited in either of the four government banks or any other Chinese bank undertaking savings with the authorisation of the Ministry.

The maximum amount of deposits of this category is $20,000 national currency. The rates of interests are fixed at 2%, 2½% and 3% for deposits of three, four, and five years respectively.—Central News.

BUILDING AUTHORITY SUMMONSES

THE HOMUNTIN LAND INVESTMENT COMPANY AND TWENTY-THREE OTHERS WERE THIS MORNING INDIVIDUALLY SUMMONED BEFORE MR. Q. A. A. MACFADYEN FOR, BEING REGISTERED OWNERS OF LAND, FAILING TO COMPLY WITH AN ORDER TO REMOVE ILLEGAL SHEDS, ERECTED WITHOUT THE PERMISSION OF THE BUILDING AUTHORITY.

Mr. C. A. S. Russ, Mr. J. M. Remedios and Mr. H. K. Wu appeared for the defence and Mr. E. G. Curtis for the prosecution.

It was stated that the land concerned was in Po Kong Village, Shek Ki Mei Village, Argyle Street, Homuntin and Chuk Yuen Village, where, it was stated, Government is intending to re-enter.

The solicitors this morning strongly objected the official action on the ground that the owners had, in any case, the right to remain on the land. Petitions have, according to the solicitors, been sent to the Governor in Council.

Mr. Curtis said that the sheds should not have been erected in the first place as no permission had been issued. The land was leased for agriculture and not for building.

The summonses were adjourned to 2.30 p.m. on November 24.

THE WRONG MAN

When Lam Tin-shek, of No. 148, Tung Lo Wan Road, second floor, was summoned before Mr. R. A. D. Forrest this morning, for failing to extinguish or screen lights during the "black-out" on September 22, the summons was withdrawn.

Sergeant D. A. Fockson said he was instructed to take out the summons, but the flat in which the lights were observed was not defendant's. Lights were shining through a fanlight. Defendant had no fanlights in his house.

Ngu Kwai, seaman of the s.s. Ben-rach, has reported the theft of $346 in money, either at Singapore or on the high sea, on October 29.

CLAIM AGAINST STEAMSHIP

AT THE SUPREME COURT THIS MORNING, MR. ELDON POTTER INSTRUCTED BY MR. E. S. C. BROOKS, K. C., SUCCESSFULLY PETITIONED ON BEHALF OF CHAN CHI-KUAI FOR THE RETURN OF $34,500, BEING PRINCIPAL ON A MORTGAGE ON THE S. S. GUIA, A PORTUGUESE SHIP OWNED BY THE EMPREZA MERCANTIL CO.

The ship was originally owned by Mr. Monterio, who mortgaged her to the plaintiff for $34,500 at the rate of $800 interest per month. The ship was later sold to Mr. Lobato on condition of the same mortgage being granted. On March 15, the ship was sold to defendant firm and a mortgage for the same amount with plaintiff at the same rate of interest.

No interest or principal had been paid since then and, in June this year, by order of the Court, under the Admiralty Jurisdiction Act, the ship was arrested and is still under arrest.

The claim was for the return of $34,500 being principal, and interest from March 15 to the date of payment, and for an order for the sale of

WHY TALKS WITH TURKEY BROKE DOWN

MOSCOW, TO-DAY.
IN THE COURSE OF HIS SPEECH TO THE SOVIET SUPREME COUNCIL YESTERDAY, M. MOLOTOV EXPLAINED WHY THE NEGOTIATIONS WITH TURKEY BROKE DOWN.

He stated that the main request of the Soviet Government to Turkey was a guarantee that the Dardanelles would be closed to foreign warships in all circumstances, but Turkey declined to accept this condition of an agreement.

Speaking of the pacts with the Baltic States, he drew attention to their provisions for Soviet naval, military and air bases in the three countries, and that this was necessary for reliable defence, not only for the States themselves but also for Soviet Union.—Reuter.

The chief Justice granted the claim but ordered a stay of execution for three weeks. Costs for the plaintiff were awarded.

"I simply adore this lovely perfume"

THERE is nothing so fragrant—so delightfully haunting—as the old-world perfume of lavender which is incorporated to perfection in Erasmic Old London Lavender Toilet Soap. This perfume has stood the test of time. It was as much a favourite in grandmother's day as it is now. No other perfume is so refreshing—so delicate—so pleasing.

And the soap—the rich, creamy lather, soft and soothing to the skin. How well it cleanses! How comforting it feels! It is a real beauty treatment in itself.

West opened the three of clubs. East played the ten and South the King. Declarer now led the five of hearts and West did a little something. It came to him as if the five diamonds were all tricks. The club already taken was the seven and two spades (if Declarer held the Ace-King or Ace-Queen) would be nine.

Accordingly, West wasted no time, but hopped right up with the Ace of hearts and played the deuce of clubs in the hope that his partner held both the Queen and Jack. Sure enough, that was the situation and four club tricks now set Declarer on fire.

CRICKET NOTES

UNIVERSITY MIGHT HAVE BEATEN RECREIO WITH MORE FORTUNE

D. Hung's Brilliant Innings Against Old Club

Civil Service Get Off To Good Start

(By "ADREM")

BEST PERFORMANCE in last Saturday's cricket programme was that of University against last year's Senior Champions, Club de Recreio.

A little more fortune and the undergraduates would have won. As it was they shook up Recreio severely and only a fine rearguard innings by H. L. Ozorio, and A. M. Rodrigues, who carried his bat right through the innings, enabled the necessary runs to be hit off after seven wickets had fallen.

Had Rodrigues been held in the slips in his first over, as he might have been, I have little doubt that University would have won. I am told that Rodrigues played some very nice strokes but was a trifle fortunate with several fast ones from Gegg which went safely through the slips, usually for four.

Gegg bowled well, but without luck, and both Hong Choy and R. Singh were full value for their wickets.

In the batting line, University were again unfortunate. K. Y. Tam, their best bat, being very unlucky to be run out through slipping. Nevertheless there was a definite tail to the batting list which might prevent this very keen team from winning matches when the League gets under way.

ONLY ONE BAT

Kowloon Cricket Club won fairly easily against their old rivals Craigengower Cricket Club but a competent observer tells me that the only man in the K.C.C. side who looked like a batsman was Douglas Hung.

Hung, who is a strong candidate for the second team, played one of the innings of his life. We have heard of Hung, the stolid opening batsman, but hitherto we had not heard of Hung, the aggressive tail-ender!

On Saturday he played himself in and then proceeded to cart the C.C.C. slow bowlers into the Police ground with monotonous regularity. Zimmern made the mistake of keeping these slow bowlers on—the assumption that sooner or later Hung must blight. Hung had other ideas and although hitting an average of about six fours out of every eight balls, never gave a chance throughout.

B. D. Lay further enhanced his chances for a permanent place in the first team with a really fine piece of bowling the merit of which is not reflected in his figures of 2 for 24.

Lloyd was a bit erratic, bowling some very bad balls in series of perfect ones. For the most part he bowled with two leg slips and A. Zimmern, behind the stumps, had a difficult afternoon keeping to him.

When Lloyd does really find a length, he is going to take some stopping as he definitely appears to have far more fire this season than he did last.

ANOTHER GOOD KNOCK

I very nearly omitted to mention the innings of Archie Zimmern, who was associated with Hung in a very useful stand. His innings, I am told, was not nearly as good as Hung's and he might have been out in his first over had Lim, at short-leg, woken up in time! It was nevertheless a valuable one which should lead to further runs as the season progresses.

I mentioned at the start of the season that I expected Civil Service to do rather well. They did very well on Saturday to beat I.R.C., practically at full strength, by 7 wickets.

The Indians were without A. R. Minu but Civil Servants were also minus Baker, so one more or less evened out the other.

I.R.C. started badly on a none too easy pitch which McLellan took full advantage of to take three quick wickets. With judicious bowling changes, the batsmen, with the exception of the inevitable A. H. Madar, were never able to settle down and 52 was about all they were worth.

Norman Whitley, with his in-swingers, did very well with the ball and supported McLellan adequately, while Perry bowled well but without luck.

RICHARDSON & COLLEDGE BAT WELL Richardson, after a shaky start, played a good watchful innings and Colledge settled down at once to score rapidly. Both passed the half-century.

From what I have seen of the R.A.F. team this year there only appear to be two or three men in it! Now has done most of the batting and quite a bit of bowling, while Nancarrow, with the bat, and Waddington, a bowler of some pace, have also done their stuff on various occasions.

All these players came off on Saturday against Club in addition to R. M. King and Gillespie and the result was that quite a strong H.K.C.C. team were given a good game.

I must confess to surprise at the performance of Parsons in taking 6 for 38. Hitherto I had always regarded him as a wicket-keeper and was not even aware that he bowled!

With the bat Potter, Mitchell and Extras made most of the runs and Club won by 4 wickets.

K.C.C. juniors, the Second Division champions, were not impressive against Craigengower juniors, although they managed to win.

DIFFERENT STORY

If the Valley team had taken all the chances offered I think there might have been a different story.

The first part of the K.C.C. innings was chiefly notable for some fine hooking by Mulcahy. Which was bowling very well and lifting the ball a lot. Mulcahy, however, whenever the ball was a bit short, hooked him with great severity—not along the ground, but bang onto the cindertrack.

Goodban might have been out c and b had not Lam given the impression of rating discretion higher than valour but he played some nice strokes with a straight bat.

Lam mixed his deliveries up nicely, his changes of pace being particularly subtle. His pace off the wicket, however, gained him most of his wickets.

Craigengower batsmen were deplorable, with a couple of exceptions, against some steady if not brilliant bowling from Mills, a newcomer. Norman Broadbridge played a really first-class innings, getting them right in the centre of the bat and steering them to all parts of the field, while Archie Hung also shaped well and was unfortunate in only scoring 11.

Baldwin got his usual bag of wickets—this time four—at a cost of 32 runs.

J. A. SOARES HITS OUT

It was not a very skillful game at King's Park between Recreio juniors and Navy. Lt. Davis was the only bat to make any runs for the sailors against the keen Recreio bowling and fielding and Navy were out for 66.

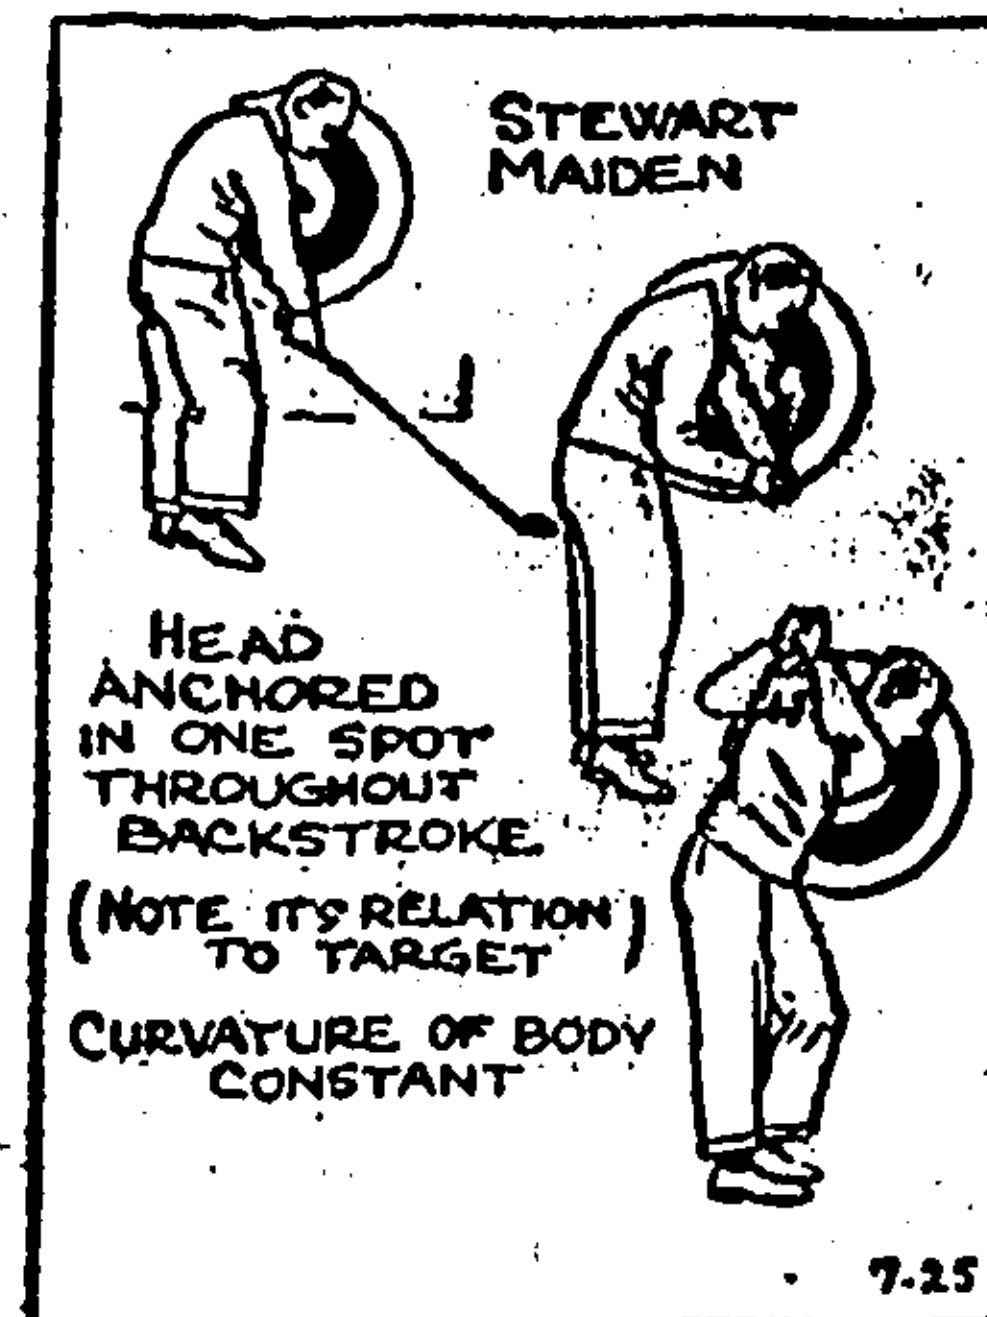

They made a good fight of it, however, and made the Portuguese lads work hard for their runs. H. M. Xavier played a fairly solid innings for 30 but most of the points went to J. A. Soares for some powerful hitting near the end which brought him an undisturbed 53.

The Naval bowling was not good! At Sookunpoo, Civil Service second eleven were unfortunate in not forcing an outright win against I.R.C. as they had 9 of their wickets down for 80 in reply to their 117 when stumps were drawn.

H. M. Strange, K. J. Atwell and R. G. Robertson scored the runs for C.S.C.

MAIDEN'S FLOWING STROKE

GRAPHIC GOLF

In the above illustration there is a definite interpretation of the flowing balance which Maiden tries to incorporate in the play of his students. The stroke itself is as grooved as a wheel trolley, head immovable and body position unchanged throughout. There is no rigidity of the trunk, the body turning smoothly and easily with the arm action. The backstroke shown here is simplicity itself, capable of being reproduced time after time in the same path. Friday. — Explosion Shots Most Popular

TO-DAY'S RUGBY

Club "A" have twice been heavily defeated by Navy this season and it is not surprising that to-day's Club team has been strengthened by the inclusion of Bidwell, Butcher and Cessford, but, nevertheless, Navy are expected to win by a comfortable margin.

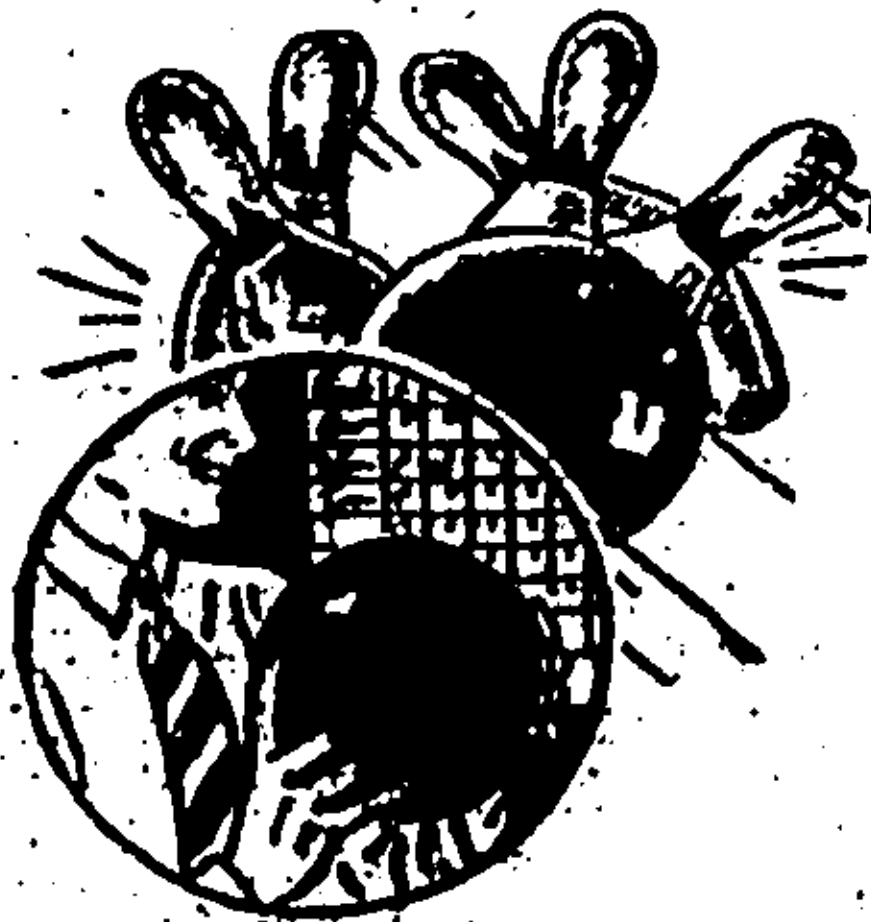

The game starts on the Club ground at 5 p.m. and the Club team is as follows:

H. F. Hopkins; L. Lammert, H. D. Bidwell, R. M. Lavalle and H. van Leeuwen; A. H. R. Butcher (Captain) and F. Cessford; R. E. Heasman, F. Burford, E. W. Stout; R. M. M. King, J. Moodie; R. G. Castleton, L. A. Benn and P. F. Wanklyn.

At Boundary Street, Police meet Royal Scots.

ARMY LEAGUE

The 8th Heavy Regiment R.A. beat the Fortress, Royal Engineers, in the first match of the Army Inter-League Rugby at Sookunpoo yesterday by 6 points to nil. Marsh kicked a penalty goal and Ricketts scored a try.

Higgins And Ruel Share Season's Batting Honours

(By GRANDSTAND)
The much sought-after honour for the right to be called the local Sultan of Swat during the past season is shared by Pinky Higgins, Hong Kong Baseball Club's first-string catcher, who bats portside but throws right; and Muddy Ruel, the crooning, side-wheeling dipsydo-artist of U.S.S. Mindanao, who chucks right-handed and hits on the left of the plate. They both averaged .500, which is tops in any men's League.

It is noticed that Pinky, who is now the Central British Association's pilot in the Softball League, played one tilt less than Muddy's eight, so, in reality, the Crooner gets the nod as last year's heaviest shillelagh wielder. Hard hitting was not the feature of either player's efforts, but their singles were stretched unobtrusively throughout the campaign, while, top honours for total bases go to Chinese Baseball Club's smiling shortstop Wally (Dimples) Ching for 23 in 13 safeties, followed closely by Mindanao's backstop Paints Thomas and Recreio's hurler, Spotty Pereira, for 21 each.

AL ALVARES' FEAT

Of especial interest is the remarkable feat of Al Alvares, who switched from catching and outfielding for Recreio, to earn a magnificent .462 in a slam-bang come back after a long lay-off of ten years. This distinction also earns him an award donated by Henry (Old Marse) Barros for the best batting average among the Recreio lads.

There were only six circuit clouts poled during the season, two each by Paints Thomas and Wally Ching, and one each by Union Brewery's Captain Dave Leonard and flinger Madeen (Perfect Control) Arculli. With the sum of 11 runs-batted-in, Thomas averaged .379 for the highest slugging average, with Bambino Leonard close on his heels with .370.

Diminutive catcher Nip Lum, of the Chinese Baseballers, again won the right to the title of the "Cushion Robber" with his pilfering of the largest number of baseruns, 14, and Dave Leonard was second with 12.

Wally Ching belted the most doubles, 5; while Spotty Pereira and Johnny Alvares, of the Rambling Recs., both connected for the most number of triples, three each.

SPORTS PARADE

I AM, to-day, venturing into territory, where, I feel sure, even the proverbial angels, would with more trepidation than usual, fear to tread.

It is, however, on a subject that badly needs clearing up—the unfortunate incident in the friendly hockey game on Saturday between Club de Recreio and the Diocesan Schoolgirls.

Women are funny creatures to deal with where their sport is concerned—they take everything so terribly seriously, more especially criticism, however well-intended.

For that reason and the fact that the case is sub judice I will confine comment on the present incident to a minimum.

In fairness to the schoolgirls, however, I feel that it should be emphasized that they did not, as reported, walk off the field. That much is certain and the seriousness of whatever charge is brought against them must therefore be minimised—to walk off any field of play for whatever reason is an unforgivable sin.

Official version of the incident as given me by the senior umpire is as follows:

Three members of the D.G.S. team were continually questioning the umpires' decisions. They were then warned that if they made any further remarks they would be ordered off the field.

Almost immediately afterwards, the junior umpire blew D.G.S. up for sticks. Mr. Gonsalves, the senior umpire, then pointed out to the Recreio team the position from where the hit should be taken.

The captain of the D.G.S. team is then alleged to have said to members of the opposing team: "You might as well go up as far as the goal-posts."

Mr. Gonsalves then ordered her off the field.

She was then alleged to have replied: "Why should I, I was only telling my girls where to stand!"

On this the Recreio captain refused to continue and the D.G.S. captain then remarked: "we might as well call the game off."

Both teams then walked off the field.

MEMBERS of the D.G.S. team, asked for their version, emphasise that their captain, when ordered off the field, was in fact doing no more than issuing instructions to the team.

They find it difficult to reconcile the action of Mr. Gonsalves in this instance, with the fact that throughout the game he acted in the dual capacity of umpire and coach and on several occasions during the game, play was held up whilst he told the Recreio girls what to do and how to do it.

They appreciate the fact that Mr. Gonsalves, on the appointed umpire falling to make an appearance, very sportingly agreed to umpire himself but feel that having accepted that responsibility, he should have forgotten the fact that he was the Recreio coach.

Mr. Gonsalves, I am informed, has already made a report to the Umpires' Association; and, it is understood, that body will in turn submit their findings to Hong Kong Ladies' Hockey Association.

SOVIET RELATIONS WITH JAPAN ANALYSED

Moscow, To-day.

A SURVEY OF RELATIONS between the Soviet and Japan was a feature of M. Molotov's speech to the Soviet Supreme Council yesterday.

The Soviet Foreign Minister said that recently there had been a certain improvement in relations, the symptoms of which had become observable since the conclusion of the agreement whereby the conflict on the Mongolian border was liquidated.

FREEDOM RADIO ACTIVITY

LONDON, TO-DAY.

THE ANTI-NAZI GERMAN FREEDOM STATION, IN A BROADCAST YESTERDAY ON THE BRITISH WHITE PAPER (GIVING AUTHENTICATED CASES OF NAZI BRUTALITY IN CONCENTRATION CAMPS) SAID: "FREE GERMANS HAD ALWAYS CONSIDERED HITLER'S TALK OF THE INHUMAN TREATMENT OF AUSTRIANS AND SUDETENS AS A MOCKERY.

"No treatment they received could have been worse than that meted out to Germans in Germany."

The announcer concluded: "There is no doubt that the leaders of the German army do not agree with Hitler."—Reuter.

For several months until the middle of September, he said, hostilities occurred in the Nomonhan district, in which all arms, including aeroplanes and heavy artillery were engaged, and in which the battles were sometimes of a very sanguinary nature.

This was an absolutely unnecessary conflict, which exacted rather heavy casualties on the Russian side and casualties several times heavier on the Japanese Manchurian side.

Finally, Japan made proposals for the termination of the conflict and "we willingly met the Japanese Government's wishes. As you know the conflict arose owing to Japan's endeavour to appropriate part of the territory of the Mongolian People's Republic, and thus forcibly to change the border in her own favour."—Reuter.

Moscow, To-day.

M. Molotov, concluding his speech, described allegations of Soviet claims against Norway and Sweden as nonsensical lies unworthy of refuting. Soviet, as a neutral, would, take all steps to mitigate the effects of the war. He criticised America's decision to lift the arms embargo and said this raised misgivings.

The effect would be not to hasten the termination of the war but to aggravate and protract it.—Reuter.

Persistent rumours that the price of petrol in Hong Kong was to be sharply increased led to extensive advance purchases by motorists yesterday.

The rumours suggested that the price would advance to $2 a gallon.

The A.P.C. told the "China Mail" this afternoon that they knew nothing of any talk of increased prices.

The Texas Company said that the rumours were totally untrue.

NAZI FAIRY TALES ABOUT FOOD

London, To-day.

The fairy tales over the Nazi radio of a food shortage in Britain, which the German announcers compare with a purely mythical state of plenty in Germany, speak of "chaos in Britain and the smooth running of the machine in Germany."

If the machine is running smoothly in Germany, it is not running in the direction of victory.

In England, provisions of all kinds are so plentiful after two months of war that no rationing has come into existence.

Apart from the increased areas under cultivation, huge wheat reserves have been gathered in.

This is in vivid contrast to conditions in Germany, where reports state that housewives in Berlin and Vienna find life one long wait in food queues.

Reports from Switzerland speak of free fights in southern Germany in the scramble for meat.—Reuter.

A British soldier, driving a motor cycle in Nathan Road shortly before three o'clock this afternoon, was injured when a coolie, carrying a long bamboo, suddenly turned with his bamboo, which met the soldier's nose.

The cycle ran into the coolie, who was knocked down, suffering injuries to his head and leg.

Both were admitted to the Kowloon Hospital.

M. Molotov said that Japan's aggressiveness on the Mongolian frontier, unilateral action, had to meet a resolute rebuff, and it has again demonstrated its utter unsoundness when applied to the Soviet Union or its allies.

It has also demonstrated the value of the pacts of mutual assistance to which are appended the Soviet's signature.

The agreement signed in Moscow which restored peace was the first step towards the improvement of Soviet-Japanese relations. The next step is the formation of a joint frontier commission which will examine certain dispute question of the frontier.

There is no doubt that if good will is displayed the examination will yield good results. In addition, the possibility has been established of starting Soviet-Japanese trade negotiations. The development is in the interest of both countries.

Thus, said M. Molotov, we have reason to speak of the beginnings of improvement in relations. It is difficult to judge how far we may reckon on a rapid development of this tendency. We have not been able to ascertain how far the ground has been prepared in Japanese circles. For our part, we look with favour upon Japanese overtures of this kind, and we approach them from the standpoint of a fundamental political position and concern for the interests of peace.—Reuter.
